| Department:  | The dance major offers students an opportunity to specialize their training in the creative, aesthetic, and conceptual discipline of expressive movement as a contemporary art form, within the context of a broad undergraduate education. The primary focus of the dance major will be the study of contemporary and ballet techniques, dance history, theory, and choreographic methods, emphasizing innovation and interdisciplinary collaboration, and pushing forward the boundaries of dance as a contemporary art form. It will provide the rigor of an academic program that fosters the balanced development of the dancer’s creative artistic potential, physical skills, and intellectual growth. The aim is to provide students with a broad range of artistic and conceptual tools for achieving goals in a variety of career areas and for pursuing advanced study in dance and dance related fields. Growth of individual artistic potential is encouraged through the integration of creative, physical and intellectual process, which provide a foundation for the creative and critical thinking needed for success in all career paths. | Dated digits or the course is not published. | Data/Evidence:
