Preventing Plagiarism: Keepin' It Real

Welcome to our plagiarism prevention and information area of the website! These pages are designed to familiarize you with plagiarism and test your knowledge.

Plagiarism can sound like a boring topic, but did you know that a student from Ohio University was removed from the Semester at Sea Program while sailing around the world because she unintentionally plagiarized? As a student, it's important to understand what plagiarism is and how to avoid it.

This tutorial is designed to help you learn:

- A definition of plagiarism
