Overview

Articulation & ASSIST

- California Community Colleges & UC's
- Role and Responsibilities of Articulation Officer
- Faculty Role in the Process
- Articulation Process
- Benefits of Articulation

What is Articulation?

- Formal written agreement that identifies courses from a “sending” campus that are comparable to or acceptable in lieu of specific course requirements at a “receiving” campus
- Roadmap by which students Navigate transfer from a California Community College (CCC) to a university
- Implicit in the articulation process is involvement, communication, and cooperation between the respective faculties and articulation officers

Articulation Officer Role

- Primary Point of Contact
- Manages the campus-wide articulation system of articulation agreements statewide
- Chief Liaison with the California Community College articulation officers, faculty, counselors, and UC faculty
- Convenes and Facilitates Faculty Meetings
- Facilitator in all aspects of the articulation process
- Principal contact with the Articulation Stimulating Systems Inter-Institutional Student Transfer (ASSIST) Project

University Faculty in the Articulation Process

- Faculty establish requirements and standards for articulated courses
- Discipline faculty are responsible for the evaluation of CCC course content
- Identification of comparable courses
- Authorization of acceptance

Articulation Process

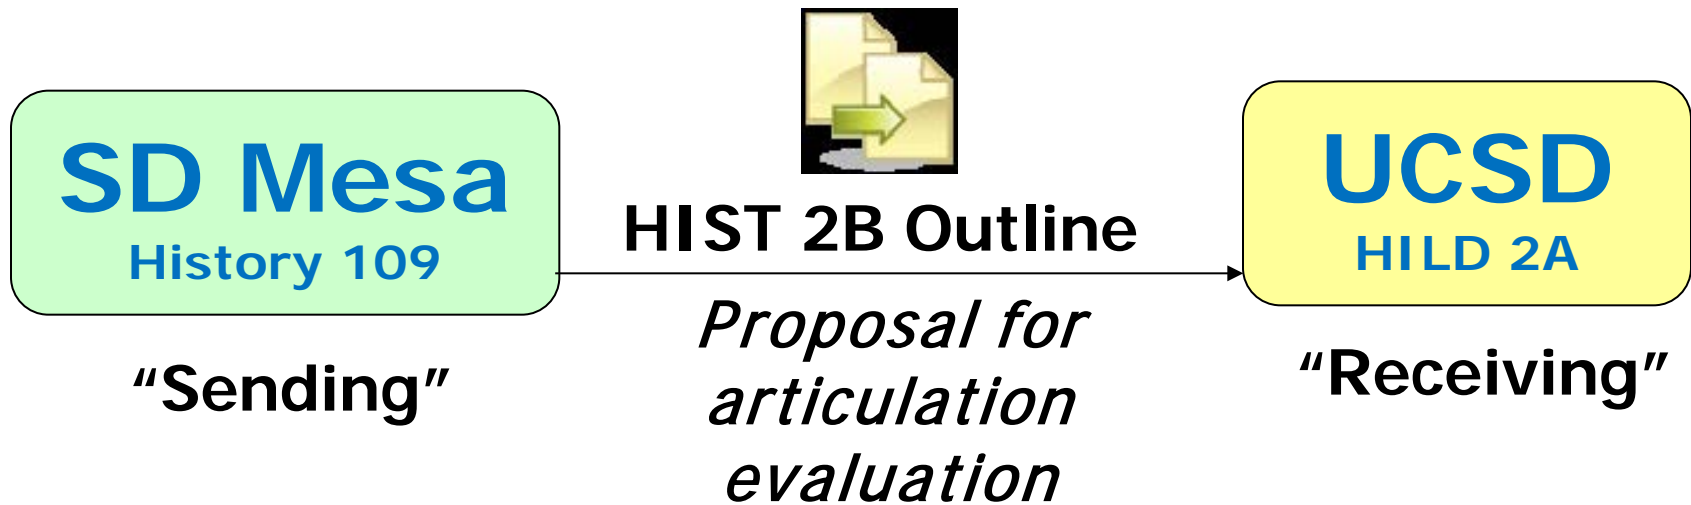

- Articulation Initiated by
 1. CCC Articulation Officer
 2. UC academic departments/faculty
- Course Information Reviewed e.g. course outline and syllabus
 1. UC Transferability check
 2. CCC course to UC course proposal entered on articulation request form
 3. Sent to academic department for faculty review and decision

If courses are approved by faculty for comparability, articulation agreement is updated

CCC Articulation Officer is notified of articulation decision

Approved courses are published on ASSIST.ORG

between San Diego Mesa & UCSD
HISTORY 109 = HILD 2A
Or, if articulation is denied then
NO COURSE ARTICULATED

ARTICULATION AGREEMENTS

- Facilitates community college transfer and continuing students
- Assists UCSD advisors and counselors
- Maximizes student chances of admission
- Reduces time to degree

Transfer Course Agreement (TCA)

- Identifies UC-transferable courses at each CCC.
- First level of articulation between UC and CCC; all courses listed are transferable to every UC campus
- Individual UC campuses may, as appropriate, articulate courses to specific lower-division courses/graduation requirements.
